MILITARY OUTRAGE AND EDITORIAL LYING.

Liberty, Equality, Fraternity—Long live the republic! Colonel Escola's praetorian prefect is carrying very conspicuous for their gallantry and introducing a new system of civilization, 'a la Russe.'

The Don Cossacks preserve order in Warsaw, so does the artillery corps in Buenos Ayres: but peculiarities are sometimes disagreeably accented by a zealous veteran, and he who is not disturbed with a pistol-shot accidentally flying across the foot-path, "It's a way they have in the army," highly honorable to the service, as we are informed by the National of Saturday last, which contains the following:

"Adventure of Monday.—Lieut. Col. Zaro Gaeon, lieutenant of artillery, was treacherously attacke a last night, by a German, who obliged him to use his arms. We regret to say that he did not the circumstance which is in strict conformity with the rules of military honor.'

Now let us hear the real version, from an Irish mercantile gentleman who narrowly escaped assassination, and has given his deposition before the Commissary, having been made instrumental in securing the "Don Quixote de la pistola."

It About 8 o'clock on Friday evening I was coming down calle Piedad, and when near the Fonda of Buenos Sopas, a German elose to me was passing an officer on the footpath. The latter turned round drawing a pistol, wherein the German made a movement to turn round, as if to make weapon or disarm the unexpected enemy. Immediately the officer fired and wounded the poor foreigner in the face, taking a piece out of his nose. Seeing this murderous attempt by a fellow wearing the Argentine uniform, who almost put my own life, too, in jeopardy, I called out to the people to look out for the delinquent, who had now taken to his heels. But for the aid of a heroic Gallician, who joined me in the pursuit, the scoundrel would have made his usual—' military outrage with impunity' We chased the gallant soldier so hotly, that he at length made a refuge in a private house, the police soon coming up, I told them that an officer had attempted to murder a man in the public street, and was inside the house. The guardians of the peace remonstrated with me, alleging the necessity of obtaining formal permission before laying hands on the criminal. I vowed carelessness were killed at the Playas, to seize him on flagranti delicto, and the Tribune never even noticed the according I e was conveyed to the police office.

The officer alleged, as his excuse, that he suspected the German to be a deserter from his corps, and was bound to shoot the under-taker, but he left the latter to be drew his pistol, and then he thought it necessary to fire. A number of Germans had come to the left the moment service, and it was a casual error to in sisting, take the wounded man for one. He, therefore, begged pardon for the little mistake, and the Commissary was pro bably full of the 'milk of human kindness,' for they have since released the gentleman soexpert at pistol practice on a public street. The wounded German is a nephew of the artist, Herr Roeves, and only just arrived in Buenos Ayres. The officer's name is Lieut. Colonel Gainey, not Gascon. I hope the case will evoke a serious inquiry, as I have been summoned to give my deposition, The National statement is a tissue of falsehoods."

Republicans, royalists, imperialists, and federal plenipotentiaries, echelons and Reformers! Come to Buenos Ayres, and tell us the difference between a military law and republican rule. Shooting a man in the streets, on suspicion that he is a deserter, is not exactly justified by law, but some of the journals approved such military spirit and the offender is not considered a prison, like an ordinary fellow guilty of gambling

"Let quiet people beware of meeting soldiers in the street, until General Mitre, Minister Gelly, or Captain Mancilla, deem it necessary to command lives from officers going about with pistols. It will be said by Argentines that military men may commit acts of inhumanity in spite of themselves, but would the offender be walking about the streets 48 hours after, as in the present instance? We believe our colleagues are afraid to publish these terrible occurrences, lest they should themselves fall victims.

LAMAS'S RETREAT AND VICTORY.

The heroic intrepidity of General Lamas, after the desertion of his cowardly cavalry, when left exposed in the open camp with a handful of foot soldiers to oppose 900 men headed by the redoubtable Flores himself, is well deserving a page in Oriental history. Who this Lamas is, or what his previous character may be, we profess the most total ignorance of, nor do we seek to enquire; his reputation as an officer and courage as a soldier have been established, and deserves our warmest admiration. It would seem as if heaven, in recompense for his bravery directed his steps towards the little town of Constitucion, where he won the most effective victory yet obtained in the Flores campaign.

The friends of Flores in this city, and the enemies of law and order, try to heap opprobrium upon this brave officer for attacking Fructuoso Gomez by surprise, and killing him and fifty of his men before first advising them of his approach. We are, and always have been the sworn enemy of cold blooded butchery, duly after the manner of the Spanish race against the cruelties perpetrated in the interior. The shooting of prisoners has ever been held up by us to be nothing more nor less than legal murder. We are not now, therefore, going to risk our character for impartiality, or wink at the cold blooded butchery of fifty men in their sleep, as is represented by our mendacious colleague. But in judging of the Fructuoso Gomez affair it is necessary to bear in mind two facts.

1st. That Lamas was in a very critical position, and the odds are ten to one that if he sent a message to advise Gomez that he was coming, and to keep his men under arms, to look out for cold league the Tribune hints he should have done, both Mr. Lamas and two thirds of his men would have been found in the camp with their throats cut.

2nd. That surprises are always legitimate in warfare The Duke of Wellington, in his despatches, Napier, in fact all the great generals of the present century have scoured some of their most important victories from the enemy by surprise.

Fructuoso Gomez was not even deserving of the name of a soldier if he neglected to post sentries. It is impossible however to believe that Lamas could have killed even a dozen of Gomez's men without sending such a disturbance as to awake the remainder.

Our colleague seems horrified at fifty men being killed in Constitucion, yet he applauds the bloodshed and devastation Argentina called attention to the atrocities of Rosas, among many others, by only dying one man, and that was plashing the reign of the dictator. We only hope that the other provinces would take pattern by Corrientes, and we should have more cause to be proud of Oriental.

The papers from Uruguay and Entre Ruguayan arrived yesterday per Sarah Thomas, and the latest accounts from the seat of war are to the 25th ult. The defeat of Flores before Salto continued. The people of Paysandu were expecting every moment that Timoteo Aparicio and his followers were preparing to give him a warm reception.

ARGENTINE INTERVENTION

We are authorized to give the most unqualified contradiction to the report that the Government of the Republic of Uruguay has solicited the intervention of the National Government with the rebel Flores and his gang—and further to say, that the Government of Uruguay will not solicit any intervention in the present moment, the idea or intention of taking such a step.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday town was rife with all sorts of rumours respecting the Flores revolution. It appears there has been a regular split among the committee-men, which resulted in the resignation 'en masse' of that body. The new Oriental revolution committee has condemned Flores to the 'long term' a scoundrel of the first water, and have sent off the brother of General Rivas to try and get the Argentine officers to head the almost expiring revolution. General Rivas, it is said, will not respond to the revolutionary call, as his last treachery is fresh on the Indians. The 200 young fellows who regard revolutions as the hereditary right of Orientals, and who were stopping in Martin Garcia for the last week, have had rest or unpleasant times, not meeting with any Indians, and finding the island notoriously dull, and the fare miserable, they got into a sort of fight amongst themselves. Buenaventa, one of the leaders, was severely wounded, and implored of Mauture to take him on board, promising never even to look at the B. Oriental again. Another of this scoundrel party has been brought back to this city a confirmed lunatic, the poor man is well known here, and he has been placed in the asylum; he generally believes he is President of the Oriental republic, and Berro his coadjutor. As yet only ten of the 200 have landed, the remainder are to arrive by the woods. The vessel which took them from here has been embargoed. The filibusters complain that although the Argentine is ready to leave port even our copy of the Triunna. A certain house in town has sent a draft for 130 ounces to a house in Gualeguaychu, and has got a fellow called Ledesma, who has been waiting some time for this cash. Urquiza, we are glad to say, has nabbed both Ledesma and the ounces.

The jerked beef business, which for the last few years has been a losing concern, has taken a turn for the better. The cargo sent to Glasgow has been sold at a profit of 26 per cent to two exporters, realizing £9 per ton on board the vessel. The arrival of the rest of the cargo, it appears, from its appearance in the hold of the vessel, was unfit for use. Messrs Proudfoot and Co state that the hold was not dry when the salt fish was put on board. The remainder of the cargo, it is said, will be sold in Liverpool. If all subsequent cargoes, they say, arrive in as good condition as that of the Condaze, there is little to fear in the long run. Messrs Proudfoot and Co state from Glasgow to the continent, and have been most favorably reported on. It would seem that to secure good jerked beef the greatest care in the greatest care in the curing and shipment

The people in Moron are determined to have some theatricals before the winter goes over. A company has been engaged in town to perform three times a week at that little village

In Co gress Dr. Quintana is the great man of the day. His project for the funding of the floating debt will be the order of the day for Monday. On Saturday the Senate was occupied with the report of the committee on the Indian Affairs' claim, and after a little discussion it was decided that the whole long disputed claim has been at last arranged.

The Argentinists of the 'Nacion Argentina,' it appears, has given up its paper, and become parti mentary reporter for the same paper. We congratulate him on obtaining his proper level.

The most go ahead province in the Republic at present is Corrientes. Funds in hand, money plenty, everybody doing well, and the people complaining the rage of the day. Any man who would even bind at revolution would find a good chance of getting employed.

We only hope that the people of the other provinces would take pattern by Corrientes, and we should have more cause to be proud of Oriental.

FINANCIAL QUESTION IN THE RIVER PLATE.

This is the title of a very interesting pamphlet published by Dr. A Brougnes. It treats in a most lucid manner of the finances of the Republic, the national debt, its consolidation, the monetary system, the Cordova Railway, and the colonization of the national Government lands, and the Gran Chaco We commend it to the attention of our foreign mercantile who have large capitals invested in these countries. Regarding the currency question, Dr Brougnes is not very explicit, but he proposes the formation of a national bank with convertible emissions.

The fund consolidated debt of the Republic the author puts down at six millions fuertes, and the national income at 4,000,000 fuertes.

The total 2 consolidated debt of Buenos Ayres is 16,160,999, of which 10,380,530 is the English debt, and 4,780,493 public funds. If the debts of Buenos Ayres are passed to the nation, which the author thinks should be done, the total amount of the Argentine debt would be 1,940,993, and the interest and amortization per annum 1,057,335.

Dr Brougnes' pamphlet supplies a want long felt amongst us, as few know the exact amount of the national and provincial liabilities.

ANOTHER VICTORY.

DEFEAT OF THE REVOLUTIONISTS.

The Monay, which arrived on Sunday morning, brought the news of the total defeat of another of Flores' bands, a fellow named Manduca Carvajal.

This revolutionary character was at the head of a few men, and had determined to attack the Government force at a place known as the Paso del Rey di Sobolati: he marched during the night, and arrived at the place before the Government force, under Colonel Dionisio Coronel, who was stationed there with a small body of men. He attacked Carvajal, but found he had got his intent. The fight lasted but a very short time. Carvajal was completely defeated, the most of his men killed, either on the spot or in attempting to escape, and Carvajal, by the greatest chance eluded pursuit, and is now in the Republic Oriental.

Captain Diego's despatch is dated from Sauce, July 30.

THE HOE PRESS.

This great instrument of civilization, and friend of industry, arrived yesterday at this office, and met with a most welcome. Those who remember the activity of the Standard, little thought we should, in two years, have to call in the assistance of R. Hoe, New York. It will be set up and ready to commence working by the end of the week: it turns off 1000 sheets per hour, having a special apparatus for supplying itself with ink, and another for laying down the papers as printed.

THE COAL DUTIES.

Minister Sarsfield has at last opened his eyes to the ruinous effects of taxing coal. The following decree has been published, and will, we trust, put an end to the scandalous frauds and peculations of the custom-house officials:

Department of Finance,
Decree
National Hacienda.)
Buenos Ayres, August 1st, 1863.

The custom-houses of the Republic shall receive coal for the use of the ships from any of the floating depots of coal, for the use of ships or of steamers—the government considering such depots the transhipment of coal from the deposits which the customs have declared free of duties

Let it be published and registered.

LOCAL EVENTS.

BRAZILIAN CREDIT—As a proof of the increased credit of the Brazils in Europe, we may state that Rothschild has offered to take a loan of 30 millions sterling, at 9 per cent bonus.

FLORES' SON—It is said that this hopeful youth was killed by Lamas in the town of Constitution

ALARMING RUMOUR.

Yesterday the city was thrown into the greatest excitement by the extraordinary intelligence of a revolution in Entre Rios. People rushed to and fro to hear the particulars, but nothing authentic could be found.

The Captain of the Port swore that he knew nothing whatsoever about it.

The story is that Lopez Jordan had some unpleasant differences with Urquiza, and, without the slightest notice made for where the long disputed province of artillery was located, and made himself immediate master of it.

After repeated enquiries we found out that a passenger, who came by the Salto had circulated the story, and that in Gualeguaychu the story was quite current.

We caution our readers, however, against arriving at any conclusion before Wednesday, as we think the story highly improbable. It is said however, by many, that Jordan and Urquiza have not been very friendly for some time back.

Urquiza is said, but arrested Ledesma and got a draft for 100 ounces from Buenos Ayres, on his person.

FOREIGN MISCELLANY.

No one who sees Mr. Lincoln now can fail to be struck with the altered appearance as compared with his looks two years ago. He looks ten years older, and the expression of his face is haggard and careworn in the extreme. His eye is restless, and is constantly wandering; at most times with a vacant expression, at others in a manner indicative of positive terror. He has exactly the demeanour of a man whose rest is broken by rumores, and to whose pillow vengeful sleep is a stranger. Who knows he has done enough to cause him a lifetime of remorse.—Chicago Times.

The principal subjects now discussed in Paris are the Mexican war and the contemplated removal of M. de Persigny from his office as Minister of the Interior. In politics it may be more truthfully said than in domestic life, "The course of true love never did run smooth." The cause which occurred the public displeasure, and, all the Ultramontanes at the late elections having been defeated, both power and influence have been transferred to bear upon the Emperor to secure the Minister's removal. It is supposed by some that he will be sent to St. Petersburg as the representative of the Court, but his aspirations are to become a Minister of the State. Various parties are spoken of as his successor, but some of these appear to be in even more ill odour with the public than the Count himself; the Emperor should choose a man who is a real friend and strive to please all parties in the appointment of another Minister of the Interior, he will supply the world with a new illustration of a very old and popular English fable, and acquire neither additional stability to his throne nor the increased attachment of his people.

It is said that the preparations for the attack on Charleston cost 150,000,000 francs. The fight lasted 48 hours, 100 men or at the rate of 5,000,000 dollars per minute!

It is a curious fact that of the eight professors of Arabic at Oxford, Dr Pusey's pulpit for the best Latin essay on the present American struggle—the subject proposed by Lord Derby—not one of them o' more than average excellence—never are on the Northern side. Moreover, several of the writers had evidently laboured over their compositions, but had been converted by the pure force of the considerations which a favourable treatment of the subject brought before them.—Spectator.

Count Moreira, the late Brazilian Minister in London, has arrived with his family in Paris, where he intends to await the settlement of the unfortunate misunderstanding which has arisen between the two countries.

The French Court.—A grand feast is to come off at Fontainebleau this week. A great number of visitors have arrived at the palace, and the princess (says a Paris letter) has made some some curious sumptuary edicts with reference to dress. In that, with the exception of the biggest, every lady visible article of ladies clothing must vermont forces between Paysandu and Salto, and that he is about to surrender

OFF THE TRACK.—The drivers of the Tramway Company are with a great sense of fellows that they are continually getting off the track.

THE NACIONAL.—We are security by a subscriber that Mr. Keen Mitchell having undertaken to build a new mission of the Bunday School in connection with Santa Lucia being too small.

TO OUR COLLEAGUES—Vicksburg is spelt with a v, not a w. Please don't forget

THE TRAMWAY—On Sunday the cars found hardly accommodate all the passengers. Belgrano was crowded, and Mr. Duncan's hotel thronged with visitors FORLORN HOPE—Some of the Tribuna' folks, few hear, talk of getting up a subscription in favour of revolutionists, to embark 'pro bono publico' for the Uruguay. The terms of our subscription are rather tempting.

The Tribuna' has even entered Salto shall be Vice-President

The second Prime Minister

The third, Minister de Hacienda, &c.

The fourth, a general revolutionary potwolloper for the republic, with a salary of $999 per month. Unfortunately for the editors of the Tribuna' they have all signified their intention of at once embarking, with it has perplexed us, for the surprise is not half a dozen of two editors considerably, as we are all of opinion now that the 'Standard' is right. No more revolutions should be encouraged in the River Plate, and Flores is the ruin of the country.

THE BUFOS—Pauline and her friends, with M D'Hote, are entertaining the Oriental. Every night they have crowded houses, and deservedly so.

THE LATEST BOLSA—The 'Tribuna' and 'National' assert that Lamas has fled to Entre Rios. Flores is about negotiating a 15 per cent loan, which he expects the 'Tribuna' and 'National' will help him to, more off at par

CAMPSUBSCRIBERS—To avoid all delays in the coach offices in town, as now send our clerk to Morens, per steamer, every Friday morning, with all trains going north of Lobos. Subscribers or agents will please advise us if they go regularly

P. W.—If your onions are fat and free from seab, you should not sell under 18 or 20 cents. If they are small, make up in the north last week, 48 cents.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY.—The barometer is rising, and houses are beginning to look up. The weather is all clear off, and the Christmas cribs appear in our firmament.

ORIENTAL RAILROAD.—It is currently rumoured that an English firm has taken up the project, and that President Bore for a railway to unite Montevideo with Higuerites. Some surveyors for the line have left the city to make the preliminary survey.

TERRIFIC LOSS.—We learn that a native colonist who resides in town has lost, in an estancia in the south of Buenos Ayres, 3 sheep.

NEW GROCERY STORE.—Another new English grocery will shortly be opened in Calle Defensa. The English grocery stores are becoming more numerous than the native shops in Calle Piedad.

RUMOUR.—It is said that Flores is completely surrounded by the Oriental forces, and that he is about to surrender

OFF THE TRACK.—The drivers of the Tramway Company are with a great sense of fellows that they are continually getting off the track.

THE NACIONAL.—We are security by a subscriber that Mr. Keen Mitchell having undertaken to build a new mission of the Bunday School in connection with Santa Lucia being too small.

BIRTH.

On Monday, 27th inst., at Calle Rio Bamba, Mrs John Duncan, of a son.

On Change

August 3.

Onces opened at a little bef ore 1 o'clock, at 456, business was remarkably dull, but some sort of undercurrent was noticed, which drove ounces up to 4374. A few brokers who have been for the last few weeks selling were remarked buying for cash, on time, and without regard to rates. At the closing hour of the Bolsa the whole affair looked out—a reaction in Entre Rios, headed by Lopez Jordan against Urquiza and the National Government. It was said that Lopez had met the session of the Cabe and taken the artillery, and that Jordan was determined to head the revolution with or without Urquiza.

As a matter of course, with such alarming stories, onces closed as firm as a rock, and with a decided upward tendency. The cash sales were very limited, 1658. The time sales were as follows—

On Change to-day the great alteration made by the Minister in the coal tax was the subject of much discussion. Dr. Sarsfield, it appears, at last discovered what we have over and over told him, that the true standard to value all coal in Montevideo if such a tax was carried out, and thus build up the trade of that city at the expense of Buenos Ayres.

Owing to the flying rumours about the Entre Rios revolution, nothing much else was talked of. The majority of the merchants looked with suspicion on the whole story, and characterised it as a bubble of the brokers. There were others, however, who seemed to attach considerable importance to it, and many asserted that the Minister had received notice of the seizure of the Custom Houses by Jordan.

The news by the Uruguay steamer, respective Flores is very favourable. This would be expected, as it appears, is regularly honored in, and Medina, with 3000 men, was here upon in the direction of Peyranda. He is renders will perceive, with pleasure, the emphatic contradiction respecting. A genuine movement in favour has been solicited by the Oriental Government in the Flores affair. Heaven grant that the day be far distant when any legally constituted Government will be obliged to make terms with any revolutionists, be to Flores, Penelosa, Lopez Jordan, or Urquiza.

The general feeling on the Bolsa is, that it some step is not put to the revolutionary native papers in Buenos Ayres, we shall have a new revolution every week.
